[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN]

The New Hampshire Political Squabble

CONCORD N H, June 8—G H Stowell president of the seceding Republican senate received this morning a copy of the opinion of the supreme court on the senatorial question accompanied by a letter from Chief Justice Cushing stating the court could not recognize any body claiming to be the senate other than that organized by the selection of Hon Mr Sanborn as president. The Republicans are not wholly unsatisfied claiming that the opinion does not touch the main points at issue the alleged assumption of duties by the executive not being prescribed by precedent or the fundamental law. They held a caucus on the subject of this new phase. The policy they adopted has not transpired. It is thought the seceding senators will return this afternoon and that the business of electing governor in joint convention will be proceeded with. The Democrats claim that there can be no legal election save at the time prescribed by constitutional limit of the charter.

CONCORD, June 8—The seceding republican senators returned to their seats this afternoon, and the senate concurred with the house in notifying the governor that both branches had organized and were ready for business. The house passed a resolution fixing to-morrow for the election of governor, but as the senate will not pass such a resolution, it is believed the question as to the possibility of legally electing the executive will be raised.

The June Races.

OMAHA, Neb, June 8.—The June races of the Missouri Valley Association commenced at Driving Park to-day under the most flattering prospects.

Burglary and Murder.

NEW YORK, June 8—Aaron Schute of Brooklyn, discovered a burglar in his room last night and though sixty years old grappled with the intruder when the burglar shot him through the neck and escaped. Schute will die.

The Erie Receivership.

TRENTON, N J, June 8.—An order of the chancellor has been made appointing H J Jewett late receiver of the Erie Railroad Company as receiver of all interests of said corporation in New Jersey. His official bond for $150 000 has been approved by the chancellor and he has taken the oath of office.

Comanches Surrender.

CHICAGO, June 8.—A dispatch from Fort Leavenworth, received at General Sheridan's headquarters this morning states that Quatada's band of Comanche Indians came to Fort Sill on the 2d and surrendered 189 warriors 300 women and children and 1 400 ponies.

Railway Matters.

NEW YORK, June 8—A long consultation took place to-day between Jewett of the Erie railway, Commodore Vanderbilt of the New York Central and Thos. A. Scott of the Pennsylvania Central railroads, for the purpose if possible of making arrangements for the benefit of the three lines. The subject of increase of the present schedule of rates was under discussion but ultimately had to be abandoned for the present. The future plan of management of the lines on more amicable basis was also canvassed at great length but left unsettled for the present. Receiver Jewett however, expressed a hope that ere long everything will be satisfactorily arranged between the three trunk lines.

Ho! for the Black Hills.

PHILADELPHIA June 8—A mass meeting of those in favor of an expedition to the Black Hills was held to-night. Tuesday evening the different organizations leave for the Black Hills by different routes. When all together the number will be 2,000.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Treasury Regulations.

CHICAGO, June 8—The Tribune's Washington special says Secretary Bristow called on General Spinner yesterday and with him visited the bureaus of the treasurer's office. The secretary expressed great sympathy with General Spinner in his misfortune. One result of the visit has been that the secretary has issued a general order forbidding visitors from seeing the vaults or bond room or any room where money is kept. For many years these places have been among the most notable sights in Washington. The practice has grown up in the treasury department of issuing almost unlimited permits to visit them.

An Interview.

WASHINGTON June 8—Louis McClain who is to be manager of the new bank in San Francisco recently incorporated had an interview to day with the Secretary of the Treasury and the director of the mint, in relation to the policy of the Government in obtaining supplies of bullion for silver coinage.

CANADA.

Fire at Toronto

TORONTO June 8.—A disastrous fire has been raging in the heart of the city since 9 o'clock to night, but is now (midnight) under control. The flames burst from Gool's stove foundry and had made considerable headway before the engines arrived. About half the block from Younge to Victoria and North Shunter streets was destroyed. Loss $150,000.

NOT COMFORTABLE.—If married men will attend the spelling matches they had better leave their wives at home. It isn't comfortable to walk home with her and have the dear creature muttering at every step, "I'm ashamed of your ignorance," and "If you can't spell 'agitate' I'll teach you when I get you home." No, its disheartening.

THE TILTON-BEECHER CASE.

More Evarts

NEW YORK, June 8—The number of ladies in attendance at the Brooklyn court to day was largely in excess of the previous day. Evarts resumed the summing up. He spoke of the duties and rights of lawyers in regard to the espousal of causes and said if the standard set up by flippant commentators on his profession was correct the independence of the bar would be reduced to a degree which would imperil the administration of justice in a free country. When Tracy was first asked to enter into consultation he stipulated he should enter it as he was a friend of Beecher. Tilton spoke of the etiquette of the legal profession. In answer to inquiries Tracy said he would not act as counsel for Beecher in the litigation of the case then submitted to him. Tilton told his case and Tracy said it was not a case which could involve legal proceedings. Subsequently when it appeared Tilton would bring a new charge against Beecher Tracy notified him he shouldn't be found in regard to that by his promise in regard to the old case. He told Tilton he was not pledged in regard to a charge of adultery. This matter had no relation to the merits of the case except as it had given an attempt to cast injurious imputations upon a gentleman who was a leader if not the leader of the Brooklyn bar and through him upon the case which he represented. Evarts then spoke of the letter of Beecher to Moulton known as the "ragged edge" letter which showed how cunningly Tilton and Moulton had begun to work on the feelings of Beecher. It also showed the restored relations between these parties. Evarts spoke of Moulton's magnificent proposition to pay $7 000 out of his own pocket rather than have Beecher disturbed by anything arising out of the Bowen matters. He was safe in making this offer as he well knew that nothing in regard to Bowen's affairs could trouble Beecher. This $7 000 matter was a curious affair and he doubted if even Tilton had got to the bottom of it yet. Tilton deposited $7 000 obtained from Bowen with Woodruff & Robinson and of this amount $6 000 were appropriated to repay advances made by Woodruff & Robinson which he was not obliged to repay. Here was generosity and kindly feeling which cunningly subtracted $6 000 from Bowen's $7 000 and cunningly replaced $6 000 of it immediately by working on the generosity of Beecher. This was a remarkable case of good management and he (Evarts) would venture that it was without a parallel in the career of the original Sir Philip Sydney.

Counsel read from the "ragged edge" letter Beecher's description of the difficulties that surrounded him. Counsel explained "I am ready to step down and out if my destruction will save Tilton. I am ready for the sacrifice," said this meant that if Tilton wanted to terminate the policy of silence he was ready as he said in June after, and to step down if the investigation would come. Counsel argued that this letter was inconsistent with guilt for a guilty man don't voluntarily parade his guilt. Counsel read the letter of Beecher to Moulton in which occurs the passage about his living under a cloud thinking each moment might be his last. This letter was but a continuation of some gloomy and exaggerated expressions. Evarts said he wished the jury to judge Beecher stripped of all advantages of his position as a man like one of us but did not wish him to be judged as a brute as a profligate or as a man of selfish and mercenary character. He was to be judged as a man of refined nature generous heart of keen sensibilities. Evarts read the letter in which Beecher said he had resolved to contend no longer that all devices by which they tried to save themselves had proved worthless and Theodore's character was such as to leave no hope for the future. That is, said Evarts Beecher had found the policy of silence in spite of all burdens it had imposed did not secure the desired object. Then Beecher wrote that Tilton had condoned his wife's fault years before and had made the tripartite agreement. Called attention to the fact that Tilton had enticed Beecher into reconciliation of his family troubles and also referred to the fact that Tilton himself had made the agreement the publication of which had stirred him to fury. Evarts remarked that after all the experience of the world after all the rays of sun to which Tilton had been exposed his skin had not been toughened or tanned and his conduct in regard to the publication of this agreement illustrated his character. Touch his self pride wound his egotism and he could not bear it. Debauch his wife and he didn't mind that. In this letter Beecher went on to say that the prospect of death and the hereafter was far happier than his life and that he would write a statement which would bear the light of the judgment day. He closed by expressing gratitude and affection to Frank Moulton. Evarts asked what was there of guilt in this letter. After urging the improbability of an adulterer writing such a letter to a man knowing his guilt, he read the reply of Moulton in which the latter told Beecher he could stand if the whole case were published to-morrow. Could any man suppose a minister of any Christian church could maintain his standing if he stood morally convicted of adultery? If the jury believe that characters are not as fruitful and provident as the looms of time ever weaved they may believe this vile column is a patch of the woe of Beecher's life and when you are asked to accept these years of misery baseness and trampling on the feelings of others, and breaking the laws of Sinai as a part of his life, you are asked what surpasses credulity. Counsel then reviewed the character of that interview between Beecher and Mrs Moulton. In all these conversations said Evarts this lady tells us Beecher never told her the facts of the case. She was talking about the facts in her mind and Beecher naturally thought they were the facts in his mind. In all this there is but one word indicating guilt and that comes out of the lady's mouth and not Beecher's. She says "I don't see how you can preach to young men against adultery when you are so deeply implicated in it yourself." She either meant "when you have won another man's wife's affection and caused misery" or she had no doubt heard, and probably believed the charge in the letter of accusation that he had endeavored to get a woman to commit adultery with him. But in this as in the case all along there is nothing to give weight and force and she doesn't say he committed adultery with Mrs Tilton. She says in the fall of '73 when there was talk of investigation by the church, she had an interview with Mrs Tilton. She all but admits she feared Moulton and Tilton were going to betray Beecher and she wanted to know if the accusation was made whether this woman would stand by Beecher and tell the truth or Tilton and Moulton could make her take the position she was in before. Mrs Moulton was in tears and went to entreat Mrs Tilton to support the truth, and not take the position of a wife opposing her husband. If she didn't know standing by the truth and telling the whole truth would uphold Beecher why was she so anxious to find out whether this wife was going to support her husband or tell the truth in the interest of Beecher and religion. She says Mrs Tilton told her she should uphold Beecher and tell the truth for her husband and yet giving evidence in advance that must be false. Counsel couldn't understand the recesses of a woman's heart but could understand that interview. One interpretation was omitted which was put to break the force of this evidence against her husband. She was asked did you not urge Mrs Tilton to stand by Beecher, and she answered so long as she should not sacrifice truth. The conclusion is obvious she urged her to tell the truth and stand by Beecher. She adds she said she would stand by Beecher and by everything which is true but Mrs Moulton said she would tell a lie to save Beecher. But Mrs Moulton would not swear the word lie was used. She is placed in a singular attitude. She says Mrs Woodhull visited her house several times and she had been three or four times at Woodhull's and brought Woodhull to her house three times. She went to Woodhull's at night and brought her to her house for conference with Tilton and Moulton, lasting three hours at that one time. Tilton and Moulton were in Moulton's house in health and strength and sent this woman to take Woodhull in a close carriage to her house and she took her little boy as an escort. She was sent again by these full grown men to take Woodhull down from Thirty fifth street in the night and took Moulton's mother as an escort. In this was apparent the most abject subjection of a wife and absolute tyranny of the husband. Moulton was the man who swore he would make it hotter than hell for any person who opposed him. Laws opposed placing a wife and husband in the dilemma of swearing against each other when in this particular marriage the wife is proved to be an errand girl at night to bring Woodhull to conferences with her husband from which she is excluded and when her husband threatens to make it hotter than hell for anyone testifying against him wisdom of law is apparent. Counsel read Mrs Tilton's letter saying she had been a pure wife and she blessed him every day for his faith in her. This statement was published in the "True Story" yet Tilton comes forward and swears she is an adulteress. Defendant subjected himself to the jury giving his explanation and subjected himself to a long cross examination suggested by Tilton's long and not friendly observation of him and whatever might be said in the way of criticism of his want of memory yet this does not reduce the direct testimony which stands plain and outspoken the denial of any form of guilt with Mrs T. Defendant stand conscious of truth and unwilling to abstain from the truth and as a man of unquestioned truth in every department of life under the burning criticisms of men and there is nothing in our jurisprudence if that does not end the case. A verdict for plaintiff strikes into the heart of his wife breaks the heart of the noble wife of Beecher destroys his own good name, dishonors our community and strikes a blow at the dignity of human nature. But the jury would find this suit in the nature of a conspiracy having not much in it at first but growing until the poverty of plaintiff and the straits he was in brought him to make accusations against the honor of his wife's character. It is an object of lictitious interest to every judge and juror. What they wanted to know was whether the case matches Beecher's character and when you have his life from boyhood open and public generous kind elevated noble and true you do not need much time for finding out that course selfish acts of such men do not match with the kind loving generous heart of Henry Ward Beecher. A good man is always a schoolboy to acts of fraud and Beecher will be a schoolboy to acts of fraud hereafter as heretofore. It does match with his character and with the testimony of one witness here that he is a great boy. We must acknowledge with respectful deference the disposition and order of this solemn trial so interested the parties to this community to all present here Christendom to all future history and acknowledge there is any miscarriage. I trust your hearts will be clear and I admit that in actual experience of the course of things in the trial anxieties and solicitudes that make us so urgent the limits covered by definite orders of court under assignment of particulars of the charge have proved to be unnecessary for we have not had evidence at all of any time or place by any witness going outside the charge and none as I think within it. And you gentlemen do your duty faithfully as citizens ever do it. You have been taken from your employment your profits and in some instances perhaps in some degree from your livelihoods and every day and hour from beginning to end you have given to witnesses and counsel the honor of your patient interest and indulgent attention. And in your verdict you will find and we shall find with joy that truth matches all round and your verdict will be no exception

CHADWICK VS McDONALD

PORTLAND June 7 1875

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

I beg to respectfully dissent from the view of your article of to day commenting upon the card of Secretary Chadwick

The secretary is accused of conduct of sufficient gravity if proven to justify his impeachment. He replies by saying that the correspondent making this charge has been impeached in his testimony in several civil suits that he has been convicted of stealing a gun from an Indian and has recently been indicted for sodomy and that he (the secretary) in the discharge of his professional duties was instrumental in causing the correspondent's testimony to be impeached. The secretary further makes a general denial of all this correspondent's charges but declines to answer specifically an accuser so disreputable

If what the secretary says of the correspondent is true I commend his course in declining to engage in a controversy with him

The presumption of innocence ought to be strong enough in every man's favor to avail him until at least a prima facie case is made against him. This can never be the case when the charge has no other authority than that of a notoriously discreditable person. A charge resting upon the authority of a man wholly unworthy of belief and who has that to vicious natures strongest of all inducements to become an accuser—revenge—deserves to be no more regarded than no charge at all. But you say it is easy for the secretary to rout his adversary by stating specifically the facts. This may or may not be so. A man may be able to defend himself with specific facts against an impalpable rumor or a vague suspicion but is there anything in the constitution of society that demands this? On the contrary the man who defends himself before he is accused, generally invites either suspicion or ridicule

As before stated, the facts contained in McDonald's letter may or may not be true. I am without any information, impression or feeling in the matter. If they are true they are record facts and are easily accessible. If they are true let some reputable person, or at least some person not notoriously disreputable say so. Then it will be in order for Mr Chadwick to stand arraigned. If one of the worst of the bad characters who exercise the vigilance of the police department of this city—and if what Chadwick says of McDonald is true the latter would be an ornament to the band—should make a charge vitally effecting the business character and standing of one of our prominent Front street merchants would it be expected that the gentlemen assailed would enter into an elaborate defense of himself in the papers? And the case would be even stronger if the facts charged were so described as to appear to be within the reach of all who cared to investigate

It is this that lends to good character its value that it will not be lightly questioned—that it places its possessor beyond the reach of the vicious and depraved

Of course I do not say that we must accept as final Mr Chadwick's statements respecting McDonald's bad character but I do say that Mr Chadwick has a right to refuse to be called to trial upon charges that are not respectably made. I recognize the fact that there are characters with whom respectable men can have no controversy and it is from what I understand to be your views to the contrary as applied to the case in question that I differ

SUBSCRIBER.

A STAGE DRIVER'S DARLING

The St Louis Republican of May 13th says G S Cathers is a stage driver in Colorado. A bright little girl of six summers lives with him and calls him father. The old man and little girl have an extraordinary affection for each other. When they are together they are happy as angels. When separated they live in the prospect of meeting and when they meet they behave like children of the same age. Their mutual idolization is well known in Denver where their home is. About two years ago an officer of the law appeared in Denver with a requisition from the Governor of Pennsylvania for the arrest and delivery of old man Cathers on a charge of abduction. Cathers friends were so well convinced of his honesty that they warned him of the presence of the officer and aided in hiding both the old man and child until the officer had departed. Then Cathers explained that he was not the girl's father but her uncle and gave a short family history. It was his dead sister's child whom he was treating as his own and better if possible. When his sister was dying she gave the little one to him and he promised to live for the child and guard her as his own. When his sister's husband married again the father wanted to take the girl away from her uncle but he fled with his little treasure to the far West. He stopped at Denver and became a stage driver and his love for his niece increased tenfold. Lately another officer came with a requisition from Pennsylvania and sued out a warrant for Cathers arrest. The Sheriff refused to serve it and the Pennsylvanian went home empty handed. Pennsylvania will have to go without that little girl while there are mountain caves in the West

POWER OF THE IMAGINATION.—The Utica Herald tells the following story of an old lady in Philadelphia, Jefferson county who acquired the habit of using morphine

After using it for relief from the pains of a tumor no persuasion could induce her to give up the poison. Her family finally united in a deception substituting carefully prepared potato starch in morphine bottles. At first she thought the supposed drug an inferior article but her physician who was in the secret assured her that it was all right and she was satisfied. She continued to use the article for fifteen years and to the day of her death and could not do without it never having learned the deception. At one time when she was ill the physician gave her Dover's powders but she could not rest after taking them until she took her starch morphine

A correspondent writes about a woman in Fayette county Pennsylvania who has made a fortune by working a farm with her own hands. Here is an extract. "Thus by industry economy and perseverance, she in a very few years amassed a considerable fortune, cleared seventy five acres of rough land filling up and leveling over ravines and fitting them for agricultural purposes. It was indeed an interesting sight to see her sitting on top of a rock with a drill in one hand and a sledge in the other piercing the very heart of the rock and blowing it to atoms and afterwards rolling it piece by piece into the adjacent ravine. This lady has now a grand house, luxuriously furnished, a first class piano, from which she brings forth the sweetest music and $50 000 in the bank"

CALIFORNIA

Great Prosperity.

SAN FRANCISCO June 8—City and County Assessor Badlam has completed the personal property assessment roll for the current year. The aggregate is $148 677 750 being an increase over that of last year of more than $41 000 000. There has been a marked reduction in the listing of property of the poorer classes. Such property as household goods domestic animals tools of mechanics and perishable improvements is greatly reduced. Banks and other corporations and many wealthy citizens have had their valuations largely increased over Rosener's estimate. The most noticeable increase is that of the Spring Valley Water Co, from $500,000 to $7 550 000 and the Gaslight Co from $600 000 to $7 000 000. The Pacific Mail Steamship Co has been increased to $4 680 000 part of which is due to the fact that the company's steamers have been assessed here this year which had heretofore escaped. Many citizens have had from $100 000 to $500 000 added to their previous assessments. Auditor Ashbury estimates the municipal expenses for the coming year at $3 631 316 a reduction of $374 000 from last year municipal revenue, other than from taxation $900 000, leaving $2 141,726 to be raised by taxation. The city will probably fix the rate at 1 cent on the dollar. The State rate will probably be four tenths of a cent. Poll taxes collected last month $22 000 to $10 000 for the same period last year

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT--DISTRICT OF OREGON

WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 16, 1874

The United States v J B Harker—No 590—Indictment

DEADY J

On November 25 1874 the defendant was convicted by the judgment of this court upon the plea of guilty of being engaged in the business of a dealer of manufactured tobacco without having paid the special tax therefor as required by law and sentenced to pay a fine and the costs of the action to be taxed

The clerk taxed the costs of the United States at $50 70, from which taxation the defendant appeals to the court, and asks that the item of $8 allowed the marshal for per diem paid deputy W F Williams for two days employed in arresting the defendant in addition to his actual expenses for travel and fee for service of the warrant be disallowed

Paragraph 18 of § 829 of the R S provides that the marshal shall be entitled "For expense while employed in endeavoring to arrest under process any person charged with or convicted of a crime, the sum actually expended not to exceed two dollars per day in addition to his compensation for service and travel"

The compensation for serving the process or warrant in this case—that is taking the defendant into custody upon it after he was found or reached, is fixed by the first paragraph of this section at two dollars. The expenses incurred in traveling from the place where the writ issues to the place where the defendant is arrested is provided for in the last paragraph of this section which directs that the marshal may at his election receive mileage for such travel or his actual traveling expenses

But compensation for the time employed in traveling to make an arrest is a different matter and a very important one to the marshal. It may take a week's travel to make an arrest in this district. No person can be found to undergo this labor and loss of time to make an arrest for his mere actual traveling expenses and the fee for serving the writ in case an arrest is made. The time employed in making an arrest is also to be paid for at not exceeding two dollars per day taking into consideration the value and responsibility of the duty to be performed. This expense is specially provided for in paragraph 18, supra which enacts that the marshal receive on that account a sum not exceeding two dollars per day. The traveling expenses and the fee for making the service are prescribed in the last paragraph of the section and it is stated on paragraph 18 that the expense therein provided for is in addition to these. The only or most manifest expense to which this paragraph can refer is the expense incurred in employing a deputy at a reasonable per diem in addition to his travel ing expenses and fee for service to make the arrest

The marshal cannot make all or but few arrests in person and therefore must employ a deputy to perform the service. This he cannot be expected to do unless he pays the deputy for the time actually employed. This per diem or compensation of the deputy is a necessary expense of serving the warrant. It is therefore incurred by the marshal in making or endeavoring to make an arrest and is provided for in paragraph 18 supra

Section 837 R S having provided that the marshal of this district shall receive double fees the maximum sum allowed for this expense in this district is four dollars per day. I do not think as a rule that this is an unreasonable allowance per day for the services of a proper person while employed in travelling over the country by any and all modes and in all seasons upon the responsible and sometimes hazardous duty of making arrests in criminal cases

The motion is denied and the taxation of the clerk affirmed

Hon G B Baldwin made a clean up of $6 300 from his ground on North Elk Idaho. Water having failed there he has begun work on Spanish gulch

Advices from Washington inform us that the Government will insist on the right of way for a wagon road from Bismarck through the Sioux country into Montana in the new treaty soon to be made with those Indians

The assessment of Pierce county (W T) is in the aggregate over a million dollars. The Northern Pacific Railroad property is assessed at about $200 000. That company the Tacoma Land Company the Tacoma Mill Company and the Starr Brothers of Tacoma are the four highest tax payers of the county

The Walla Walla Union says "On Wednesday last we saw a man leaving the county in search of a better place. He settled here some ten years ago and was then poor but in leaving he took with him 300 head of cattle and 100 head of horses. Besides this he has a farm worth $6 000, and left 10 head of horses and 50 head of cattle on the place

The Avalanche says "A well known merchant of Placerville was aroused from his slumbers about 12 o clock one night lately, by some of the boys who had been on a run and asked if he had any candles. Having U S currency in view he crawled out of bed and went to the store—which is about 600 yards from his house. He was cautioned to keep them as they would probably be needed on the Fourth

They are beginning to experience lively times in South Mountain mines Idaho. One of the furnaces is in constant operation and the other will be started up as soon as coal can be got to run it. They have 100 000 bushels of coal at the pits and are adding to it at the rate of 3 000 bushels per day. One hundred mules are engaged in packing it from the pits to the furnaces and 100 more will be put to work in a few days. Holders of South Mountain stock are feeling very good at present

A good many immigrants are reaching Montana this year. A new impetus has been given to quartz mining (gold and silver) and every mill is in operation or getting ready for work. Machinery has been shipped from Chicago for a complete silver mill, with Stedfeldt furnace to be put in operation at Jefferson City the present season. The cost of these works (owned by the Chicago Co of which Mr Mason son of R B Mason ex mayor of Chicago is president) will be from $40 000 to $50 000

A few weeks since a man named Tom Brown ran away from Walla Walla, and took a lot of horses that he had mortgaged to other parties. And now one Irwin follows suit leaving behind him divers and sundry creditors who mourn his departure to the tune of $500 or $600. Brown got away all right, and has not been heard from since he left the valley. Irwin took considerable property with him, and a man has been sent after him to see if he cannot persuade him to divide

The Union thinks things look as if the military and civil authorities about Lapwai Idaho might collide. Mr Langford some time ago got a judgment giving him the right to possess the lands upon which stands the Lapwai agency and the sheriff was ordered to put him in possession. But the officer was met by military force and could not execute his writ. We understand that the officer in charge of Fort Lapwai has received orders to repel by force if necessary Langford, the civil authorities or anybody else who attempts to take possession of the premises. As there are three companies of troops at Fort Lapwai, it is not likely that the sheriff of Nez Perce county will be able to raise a posse sufficiently strong to take and hold possession of the agency

The Walla Walla Union says "Until within the last three or four years cattle have borne a good price but lately they have gone down until now they are very low, and now, when they appear to be worth almost nothing, nearly everybody has become disgusted with the business and want to sell out and turn their attention to something else. And the very fact that so many want to sell, makes cattle still cheaper than they otherwise would be. But when we see the hundreds and thousands of cattle that have gone and will go out of this country before the end of the season it may readily be discovered that the numbers will be greatly decreased. But not content with this decrease in numbers some have conceived the idea of preventing further increase in their herds and to this end thousands of cows and heifers are being spayed. We hear of one man in Umatilla county who has spayed 600 head of his cattle so that in a very short time cattle will probably be high here again"

The stock men of Boulder valley report that during the past winter the grizzly bears have raided extensively upon the cattle grazing in that valley. The body of a steer was discovered where Mr Grizzly had buried it. Knowing from the habits of the animal that it would return for the meat a party of three made up their minds to have some bar. They prepared for the attack by hauling a wagon loaded with hay to a point a few yards from where the meat was buried and the three hunters took their station on the top of that load of hay to watch for the appearance of the bear. The bear came—but holy horrors! That bear was a sociable animal. He had hungry neighbors, and not to be mean about a little thing brought five of his most intimate friends along to assist in the feast. Six huge grizzly bears! Whoop! Each particular hair upon the head of each individual hunter was as stiff as a porcupine's quill. They hadn't the remotest idea or intention of feloniously with malice aforethought, taking the life of any grizzly bear that ever lived and breathed the free air of the lofty mountains surrounding the beautiful valley of the Boulder. They were peaceful grangers taking a rest from weary labors resting their tired limbs upon a load of hay gathered by the sweat of their brows—respectively and collectively. Not a muscle moved—not a granger stirred. The Messrs Grizzly gathered around the festive board criticized the quality of the bunch grass fed steer picked their teeth with their toe-nails drank a parting toast to the health of the peaceful grangers on the hay, and hied away to their mountain home

A MAN DIES FROM SHEER FRIGHT.—Five weeks ago Alexander V Brower of Schenectady lacerated a finger by means of a corn cutter. He was attended by a leading physician, and in due course of time the wound healed leaving a mark for a while of a pinkish indigo tint. While attending church subsequently, at the East Avenue Mission Chapel a fellow pew occupant asked to see his hand. Observing the partly healed wound he whispered to Brower in his opinion the wound had mortified. Brower's father sat in the seat with him. His son took a piece of paper and wrote thereon and handed to his father a request that they leave church. The father on reaching the outside asked the cause of the sudden request. The answer was that he (the son) was going to die. Mr Brower ridiculed the idea but proceeded home. After a time following their arrival the father found the son engaged in prayer, and was again told by the latter that his end was near. The son had to be soon removed to a bed and the doctor was again summoned. The latter on arrival found his patient with high pulse, much excited and showing marked symptoms of typhoid fever. The former wound on his hand was found in the same condition as when last seen—that is everything presaging rapid and permanent healing. Friday young Brower died—an evident victim of fright —Troy Times

Last fall Senator Jewell of Umatilla county, purchased five Spanish merino bucks which he has just sheared. They yielded, in the aggregate 112½ pounds. Four of them were sheared about 11 months ago, and the fifth was sheared only about 9 months ago. Mr Jewell has finished shearing his sheep and the total average is 5⅞ pounds apiece. Mr J fed his sheep over 100 tons of hay during the winter

John Jackson, a half breed who can at least read English was arrested one day last week, out near Butter creek Umatilla county, by L C Disosway, U S marshal on a charge of selling liquor to an Indian and lodged in the county jail. Jackson confessed that he sold liquor to "Charley" the Indian who killed Opi, another Indian. Opi was lying down and probably asleep when "Charley" stabbed and killed him

The Record learns from Mr P D Hall, of Jacksonville that cinnabar mines are being discovered constantly in that vicinity and just before he left there a prospector brought in ore so rich that on breaking it open the native quicksilver would ooze out of it. This was found near the location of former discoveries in Sam's valley. One prospecting party from Oregon has made discoveries in Siskiyou county, California, just south of the Oregon line and is reported to have struck some rich cinnabar. This party consists of Wilbur Cornell, who left Salem a few months ago, Henry Klippel and Wm M Turner, of Jacksonville

From the Salem Record "We understand that the widow of the Rev A F Waller is having a family vault or tomb erected out of Roseburg sandstone similar to that used for the foundation of the State Capitol, to which his remains will be removed when it is completed. The work is being done by the Messrs. Joseph, stone-masons, and will be erected in the Lee Mission cemetery the cost to be $1,500. Mrs Waller is thus fulfilling the wishes of Father Waller, often expressed in his lifetime. The remains of a deceased son, who died before him, were temporarily buried on the home premises in view of such a tomb being erected, as were the remains of Father Waller himself

The treaty between the United States and Walla Walla, Cayuse and Umatilla tribes and band of Indians entered into June 9, 1855 and ratified March 8 1859, provides that the United States secure and pay for the services and subsistence for the term of 20 years, one superintendent of farming operations, one farmer, one blacksmith, one wagon and plow maker one carpenter and joiner one physician and two school teachers" In accordance with these stipulations a school is now being taught up at the agency on the reservation, by Miss Clem Cornoyer eldest daughter of the agent Major Cornoyer. During the summer months the average attendance is about 20 in the fall and winter, about 30. The branches taught are spelling reading writing, arithmetic, geography and sometimes grammar. All these branches they learn quite readily except grammar. Most of them especially like geography and arithmetic.

THE GRASSHOPPER FAMINE—SOME SAD FACTS.

Various and somewhat conflicting reports have been circulated with relation to the progress of the grasshopper plague, some accounts being in effect that the rumors of its continuation were unfounded, or based on but slight foundation, and that there was really no cause for serious apprehension. We have given heretofore extracts from letters from different places, showing that the worst reports thus far received were no exaggeration. We are now permitted to copy such portions of a private letter just received as prove that exaggeration would be impossible. This letter is from Johnson county, Kansas, to Mr. M. P. Snelling, who came out here lately on a tour of inspection. It is from his wife who writes, May 23d:

> We are being eaten up alive with the hoppers. O, if you were here you would say you never saw any before. The face of the earth is buried up by them. You could shovel them up if they would keep still long enough. They had not begun to hatch out when you left. The largest are not half an inch long yet, and the fields and gardens are as bare as though they had never been planted. Oats, wheat, flax and corn and nearly all the grass is entirely gone, and now they are stripping the leaves off the bushes and trees. Our gooseberry bushes are black with them, and this morning I could have shoveled up three bushels piled up round the cellar wall. People have to keep their doors and windows shut, or stand in the doors with brooms and fight them out. The weather has been so favorable the crops and gardens were looking very fine. Corn 4 to 6 inches high, and lettuce, onions and radishes just fit for use. Your potatoes were doing very finely. I covered things all up and tried every way, as everybody else did, but it was no use. Men and boys turned out and dug ditches and drove the hoppers into them—you can drive them in masses the same as the potato bug—and bushels and bushels have been destroyed in that way. Fourteen bushels were ditched in one day at Mr. Reynolds' place, and as many as 20 bushels on the length of Park street. They eat up each other, too, and the air is full of stench from them. Everybody is looking starvation in the face unless we can be helped from abroad. The southern counties are not eaten up, and the prospect good for crops, and they send us word they will be able to help the northern and eastern counties a good deal. Miami county is worse eaten than Johnson. There is not a green thing in it. Cattle and horses are dying or being driven off. * * * Many people have left town, shut up their houses and gone to Illinois or other States. Missouri is just as bad off in all the western part. * * * It is like the cholera or yellow fever; nothing else is talked about and sadness broods over the land. Churches hold meetings, and some hold fast days and pray. * * * It is of no use to think of selling any property; and provisions will be terrible high. Beef is 15 cents and flour very high; no potatoes to be got.
> You will think I am writing a sad letter, but these are sad facts, which I could hardly believe if I did not see them.

We have given this letter at so great length because it is manifestly the story of the case as witnessed and experienced by an intelligent woman, who is attempting neither exaggeration on the one hand nor concealment on the other. It is indeed a sad letter. It is a letter which should touch the sympathies of every one who has been spared this great affliction, and should inspire a purpose to find out the most effective way to help these suffering people, and hasten to their relief. Oregon has not done her part by the sufferers of these stricken districts. She should now wake up. Those people who "look starvation in the face" must be provided for, and our people, enjoying the advantages of a most remarkable exemption from all the uncertainties incident to agricultural pursuits in other countries, should show no laggard spirit in contributing according as God has prospered them, to the necessary measures of relief.

NEW HAMPSHIRE POLITICS.

The telegraphic report of the status of political affairs in New Hampshire, leaves it to be inferred that the infamy perpetrated by the Governor and his co-conspirators, in order to secure to their party a majority in the State Senate, is likely to triumph over right and justice, unless there is found sufficient honor in the Senators themselves to antidote the evil. The Senate in that State, as in all the others, is the sole judge of the election and qualification of its own members, and, if that body is willing to take upon itself the crime of Weston and his clique, it has the power to do so. It will be remembered that the Governor and his four councilors, upon whom devolved the duty of counting the votes and certifying the election, taking pattern after the infamous conduct which gave the Republicans control of the Louisiana Legislature last winter, cast out, on the flimsiest possible pretext, votes enough to defeat two of the Republicans who had been chosen by overwhelming majorities, and to let in two of their own kind. The particulars of the case our readers have seen, and it is unnecessary to repeat them here. Suffice it to say, the most flagrant of Kellogg's villainies in New Orleans were not more utterly indefensible than the proceedings of these New Hampshire Democrats.

The record of the Democratic party in the politics of the White Mountain Commonwealth heretofore has not always been one to which the party conventions could "point with pride." The two parties have been so nearly equally divided that party spirit has run higher there than in nearly any other of the northern States, and deeds have been done in the name and for the sake of party which, in the dispensation of sound political morals—that millenial dispensation which is always just about to break upon the world—would consign every man to everlasting disgrace. Two years ago there was an example of this. Having secured the legislative and executive departments of the State by a small majority in the popular election, they immediately began to gerrymander the senatorial districts so as to keep control in the future. Distant points were connected by thin strips of territory, and all sorts of imaginary lines were run over the State, until it required almost the school of a scientific surveyor to enable the citizen to ascertain to which district he belonged. Neighbors who lived within a stone's throw of each other, were connected by incomprehensible ligatines of land to points as remote from each other as was possible. The large towns were cut up into small sub-divisions, and attached to rural districts with spoon-handle connections. Even wards in the towns were rent assunder in order to make sure of Democratic majorities in the senate afterwards. But the gerrymandering failed to produce expected results. The party lost as much in the disgust of the people at this childish trickery as it gained by the rearrangement of the map to suit the political sentiment of different localities. And now, having failed to secure a permanent ascendency through that infamy, they seek to get at least a temporary one through a crime taught them by the Louisiana carpet-baggers.

One hundred and twenty young ladies, students of Vassar College, headed by President Raymond, visited West Point on the 27th ult. The excursion was planned and carried out by the young ladies, and although three or four gentlemen besides the President—all professors in the school—went along with the procession, they were not taken as protectors of the young ladies, but merely as ornamental appendages. General Ruger, commander at the post, having been notified of their coming, threw open the doors of the chapel, riding-school, &c., to them, and a grand time was had, which was participated in not only by the young ladies and their company, but also by a large assemblage of citizens from the surrounding country, who had come to greet the visitors.

NOTICE IN BANKRUPTCY.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED States for the District of Oregon. In bankruptcy. In the matter of Charles H. Friendly, bankrupt. United States of America, District of Oregon, ss.—A warrant in bankruptcy has been issued by said Court against the estate of Charles H. Friendly, of the city of Portland, county of Multnomah and State of Oregon, in said District, who has been duly adjudged bankrupt, upon petition of his creditors, and the payment of any debts and the delivery of any property belonging to said bankrupt to him, or to his use, and the transfer of any property by him are forbidden by law. A meeting of the creditors of said bankrupt, to prove their debts, and choose one or more assignees of his estate, will be held at a Court of Bankruptcy, to be holden at Portland, in said District, on the 23d day of June, A. D. 1875, at 10 o'clock A. M., at the office of H. H. Northup, (Room No. 8 in Dekum's Building), one of the Registers in Bankruptcy of said District.

DANL J. MALARKEY,
je9d9a16 U. S. Marshal for said District.

JUSTICE'S COURT FOR THE PRECINCT OF North Portland. State of Oregon, county of Multnomah ss. Robert Smith, plaintiff, vs Joseph Bliss, defendant. To Joseph Bliss, the above-named defendant. In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear before the undersigned, a Justice of the Peace for the Precinct aforesaid, on the 26th day of July, 1875, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the office of said Justice, in said Precinct, to answer the above-named plaintiff in a civil action. The defendant will take notice that if he fail to answer the complaint herein, the plaintiff will take judgment against him for $166 50-100, which sum plaintiff claims as due him for services rendered defendant from 16th May, 1875, to June 2, 1875, at defendant's request, amounting to $76 50, and the further sum of $90 for services rendered by A. F. Keyser, for defendant, at his request, from April 1, 1875, to June 2, 1875, which last claim has been assigned to plaintiff, and defendant is further notified that his property has been attached in this action to answer said demand.

Given under my hand this 8th day of June A. D. 1875.

JOSEPH REILLY,

EXCITING RUNAWAYS.—Two very exc runaways occurred last evening abou o'clock. A horse attached to a buggy longing to Mr. S. G. Skidmore, started fron front of his drug store on First street. spite every effort made to stop the anima ran at full speed down First street until street was reached. Turning down Ash the frightened animal ran to Front, and up that thoroughfare to Alder. Just b reaching Alder the horse ran against a b in which was seated Mr. L. Therkelsen contractor, who was driving slowly up F Both vehicles were capsized instantly, Mr. T. was thrown violently to the paven but fortunately escaped without the slig injury. The collision frightened Mr. The sen's horse which also began to run. Skidmore's horse ran up Alder street to where he slipped and fell, and was ca The animal belonging to Therkelsen ra Alder to Second street and was also capt Both of the buggies were more or less bro The double runaway occasioned great ex ment for a few minutes.

A PLEASANT SOCIAL AFFAIR.—A very p ant social party was given last evening at engine house of Multnomah Co. No. 2 by members of that organization. Invitat were extended to a number of ladies gentlemen to be present at the party, and, natural result, the large and elegantly nished meeting room of the company crowded to repletion. The affair had arranged for an earlier date, but owin some event it was postponed, and last even through the efforts of the members, a c plete success was made of the entertainm A pleasant opening to the social event of evening was the introduction, by the orc tra, of Chas. Bray's "Multnomah Mar after which came an impromptu con several ladies and gentlemen volunteering rendering this portion of the evening's gramme a feature. Dancing was indulge which closed the pleasures of the even and thus ended another pleasant event at house of Engine Company No. 2.

BRIG ORIENT.—This vessel now lies parti beached at Astoria. Those who are eng in hauling her out have, after consider labor, succeeded in drawing the craft up the beach for some distance, so that at tide the water is about three feet deep. enables the men to discover, to some ext the damage sustained by the vessel. ascertained that a number of holes have stove in the hull, and that the frame of vessel is in a badly strained condition. yet all the lumber remains in the hull. the opinion of experienced men that the pairs cannot be properly made at Ast owing to the difficulty of getting at the d aged portions of the hull. To thoroug overhaul the vessel it will be necessary to her to San Francisco, and place her in the dock. If the holes can be stopped and the w pumped out, the vessel will probably be ta below for repairs.

HORNS IMBEDDED.—Mr. Tibbets, who res about twelve miles from Eugene City, abo cs yesterday the horn of a stag which wa cently taken from the heart of an oak tre his farm. The horn had four prongs and perfect and in a remarkably good state of servation, considering the great length of it has lain imbeded in the solid wood. oak tree was three feet and six inches in ameter at the point where the horn was fo which was six feet from the ground. Four feet and eight inches above from where horn was discovered, the tree forked, or a large brach put out from the main trunk is evident that the horn had at some time dropped between the limb and trunk, the oak was but a small bush, which grown up more than twenty feet feet from ground.

PUBLIC INSTALLATION OF GRAND OFFICE The officers of the Grand Lodge of Templars, now in session, are to be pub installed at Good Templars' Hall this even The Grand Lodge and all the Good Temp in the city are expected to meet at Noup Hall, on corner of First and Madison str and march, headed by a band, through principal streets to Good Templar Hall, w the impressive ceremonies of installation take place. After these ceremonies there be short speeches by some of the mem prominent in the work in this State. exercises will be very interesting.

THE RAILWAY LITIGATION.—The case of Oregon Central Railway Co., plaintiff, vs. Gaston et al, came up for hearing before Ju Shattuck yesterday in chambers. Me Dolph, Bronaugh, Dolph & Simon appe for plaintiff, and Messrs. Durham & Tho son for defendants. The counsel for the fendants filed a motion to modify or diss the injunction issued in favor of the Or Central Railway Co. vs. Joseph Gaston others. All the afternoon was consume arguing the motion, and no decision was in the case.

CISTERN CONNECTIONS.—The committee fire and water have awarded to C. H. M the contract for connecting the 14 fire cist by a 2-inch pipe, with water mains. The tract price is $299.52. The cisterns to be connected are those at the following inte tions of streets: Front street with Mad and Columbia; Second with Pine, Stark der, Yamhill and Main; North Fourth B; Fourth with Stark; Fifth with Mor and Taylor; North Seventh with B, and enth with Morrison and Jefferson.

YOUNG POTATOES.—Mr. Jacob Wagenb residing on Government Island, has la under obligations for about a peck of yo choice potatoes. These "spuds" were r on his farm the present year, and are the of the season. Nice, fresh potatoes on the of June is not a commodity to be sneeze by the most fastidious epicurean, and is n bad thing for Oregon either. Who can "count" the above on the potato question.

A HANDSOME BELL.—At the Oregon I Foundry yesterday, we were shown a ha some bell which has just been cast at t works. This bell is composed of an exce quality of bell metal, and possesses a c sweet tone. Without the rotary yoke the weighs about 500 pounds. It was cast f church at The Dalles, to which point the will soon be shipped.

WEATHER REPORT.—From the records o U. S. Signal Station of Observation, Portl Oregon, June 8, 1875:

	7 A. M.	2 P. M.	9
Thermometer	63°	73°
Wind, direction	Calm.	N.W.

STRIKE.—A gentleman from down the r informs us that the Chinese laborers emplo at the fishery of A. Booth & Co. struck higher wages. The Chinamen quit work refused to resume at the request of the prop tors. A war of words ensued, but all diffe ces were at length adjusted, and the Jo went to work again.

CAMPMEETING.—Rev. T. L. Sails, wri from Gervais under date of June 7th, s "Will you please publish that there will campmeeting on the M. E. campgro Rock creek, commencing on Friday, 25t June, 1875, and expected to hold over Sabbaths."

BARKS DUE.—Both the barks Garibaldi Record are soon expected to arrive at port, from Hongkong. The bark Gari will bring about 272 Chinese passengers; a full cargo of merchandise to the var Chinese merchants of the city.

PAID OVER.—Yesterday morning, Treasurer A. H. Brown arrived here from lem. He paid over to the county treas F. Harbaugh, $2,412 81 coin, and $851 58 rency, being Multnomah county's portio the irreducible school fund.

MET AND ADJOURNED.—Yesterday mor the United States district court met purs to adjournment. No business of import presenting itself the court adjourned.

ADMITTED TO PRACTICE.—In the U. S. ci court on Monday, on motion of H. Y. Tho ton, William P. Lord and N. B. Knight admitted to practice.

CITY.

EXCITING RUNAWAYS.—Two very exciting runaways occurred last evening about 5 o clock A horse attached to a buggy belonging to Mr S G Skidmore started from the front of his drug store on First street Despite every effort made to stop the animal it ran at full speed down First street until Ash street was reached Turning down Ash street the frightened animal ran to Front and then up that thoroughfare to Alder Just before reaching Alder the horse ran against a buggy in which was seated Mr I Therkelsen the contractor, who was driving slowly up Front Both vehicles were capsized instantly and Mr T was thrown violently to the pavement but fortunately escaped without the slightest injury The collision frightened Mr Therkelsen's horse which also began to run Mr Skidmore's horse ran up Alder street to First where he slipped and fell and was caught The animal belonging to Therkelsen ran up Alder to Second street and was also captured Both of the buggies were more or less broken The double runaway occasioned great excitement for a few minutes

A PLEASANT SOCIAL AFFAIR.—A very pleasant social party was given last evening at the engine house of Multnomah Co No 2 by the members of that organization Invitations were extended to a number of ladies and gentlemen to be present at the party, and as a natural result, the large and elegantly furnished meeting room of the company was crowded to repletion The affair had been arranged for an earlier date, but owing to some event it was postponed, and last evening through the efforts of the members a complete success was made of the entertainment A pleasant opening to the social event of the evening was the introduction, by the orchestra, of Chas. Bray's "Multnomah March," after which came an impromptu concert several ladies and gentlemen volunteering and rendering this portion of the evening's programme a feature. Dancing was indulged in which closed the pleasures of the evening and thus ended another pleasant event at the house of Engine Company No 2

BARK ORIENT.—This vessel now lies partially beached at Astoria. Those who are engaged in bailing her out have, after considerable labor, succeeded in drawing the craft up on the beach for some distance so that at low tide the water is about three feet deep This enables the men to discover to some extent, the damage sustained by the vessel It is ascertained that a number of holes have been made in the hull, and that the frame of the vessel is in a badly strained condition As yet all the lumber remains in the hull It is the opinion of experienced men that the repairs cannot be properly made at Astoria, owing to the difficulty of getting at the damaged portions of the hull To thoroughly repair the vessel it will be necessary to take her to San Francisco, and place her in the dry dock. If the holes can be stopped and the water pumped out, the vessel will probably be taken below for repairs.

HORN IMBEDDED.—Mr Tibbets who resides about twelve miles from Eugene City showed us yesterday the horn of a stag which was recently taken from the heart of an oak tree on his farm The horn had four prongs and was perfect and in a remarkably good state of preservation, considering the great length of time it has lain imbedded in the solid wood The oak tree was three feet and six inches in diameter at the point where the horn was found which was six feet from the ground. Fourteen feet and eight inches above from where the horn was discovered, the tree forked or a very large branch put out from the main trunk It is evident that the horn had at some time been dropped between the limb and trunk when the oak was but a small bush which had grown up more than twenty feet feet from the ground.

PUBLIC INSTALLATION OF GRAND OFFICERS.—The officers of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars, now in session, are to be publicly installed at Good Templars' Hall this evening The Grand Lodge and all the Good Templars in the city are expected to meet at Nonpareil Hall, on corner of First and Madison streets, and march, headed by a band, through the principal streets to Good Templar Hall where the impressive ceremonies of installation will take place. After these ceremonies there will be short speeches by some of the members engaged in the work in this State The occasion will be very interesting

THE RAILWAY LITIGATION.—The case of the Oregon Central Railway Co, plaintiff vs Jos Gaston et al, came up for hearing before Judge [illegible] yesterday in chambers Messrs [illegible], Bronaugh, Dolph & Simon appeared for plaintiff, and Messrs Durham & Thompson for defendants. The counsel for the defendants filed a motion to modify or dissolve the injunction issued in favor of the Oregon Central Railway Co vs Joseph Gaston and others. All the afternoon was consumed in arguing the motion, and no decision was made in the case.

CISTERN CONNECTIONS.—The committee on fire and water have awarded to C H Myers the contract for connecting the 14 fire cisterns by 4 inch pipe, with water mains. The contract price is $290 52 The cisterns to be thus connected are those at the following intersections of streets Front street with Madison and Columbia, Second with Pine Stark Alder Yamhill and Main, North Fourth with B Fourth with Stark Fifth with Morrison and Taylor, North Seventh with B, and Seventh with Morrison and Jefferson

YOUNG POTATOES.—Mr Jacob Wagenblast living on Government Island has laid us under obligations for about a peck of young new potatoes. These "spuds" were raised on his farm the present year, and are the first of the season Nice, fresh potatoes on the 8th of June is not a commodity to be sneezed at by the most fastidious epicurean and is not a bad thing for Oregon either Who can "discount" the above on the potato question?

A HANDSOME BELL.—At the Oregon Brass Foundry yesterday, we were shown a handsome bell which has just been cast at these works. This bell is composed of an excellent quality of bell metal, and possesses a clear true tone Without the rotary yoke the bell weighs about 500 pounds It was cast for a church at The Dalles, to which point the bell will soon be shipped.

WEATHER REPORT.—From the records of the U S Signal Station of Observation Portland Oregon, June 8, 1875

STRIKE.—A gentleman from down the river informs us that the Chinese laborers employed at the fishery of A Booth & Co struck for higher wages. The Chinamen quit work and refused to resume at the request of the proprietor. A war of words ensued but all differences were at length adjusted, and the Johns went to work again

CAMPMEETING.—Rev T L Sails writing from Corvallis under date of June 7th says "Will you please publish that there will be a campmeeting on the M E campground Rock creek commencing on Friday 25th of June, 1875, and expected to hold over two Sabbaths.

BARKS DUE.—Both the barks Garibaldi and Forward are soon expected to arrive at this port from Hongkong The bark Garibaldi will bring about 272 Chinese passengers also a full cargo of merchandise to the various Chinese merchants of the city

PAID OVER.—Yesterday morning State Treasurer A H Brown arrived here from Salem. He paid over to the county treasurer P Harbaugh $2,412 81 coin and $851 55 currency, being Multnomah county's portion of the irreducible school fund

MET AND ADJOURNED.—Yesterday morning the United States district court met pursuant to adjournment. No business of importance presenting itself the court adjourned

ADMITTED TO PRACTICE.—In the U S circuit court on Monday, on motion of H Y Thompson, William P Lord and N B Knight were admitted to practice.

At 1 o clock the Grand Lodge was called to order by W R Dunbar G W C T

The G L degree was conferred upon Jos B Perkins, Ellen E Gerkins John E Lewis Warren T Riches, W S Cameron, A T Creecy

The Grand Lodge closed in the G L degree and by resolution decided to do the work in the degree of charity

Report of G. W. C. T

Hon W R. Dunbar, Grand Worthy Chief Templar submitted a lengthy report, from which we make the following extracts

In compliance with the instructions given me at our last session I took the field for the order as soon as I could dispose of other business engagements and went forth to labor as earnestly and industriously as in my power lay for the building up of our order in this State and the consequent strengthening of temperance sentiment everywhere I have been thus employed eight of the twelve months' time, and have in that time organized and reorganized 35 lodges delivered 128 public lectures and made 90 official visits to 71 lodges other than the one to which I belong have traveled in the performance of this work 5 011 miles and have incurred traveling expenses to the amount of $501 dollars Twelve other lodges have been organized and reorganized as follows By Levi Leland Grand Lecturer 6 by B I Ramp S D 1 by I W Spencer S D 1 James A Smith G S and S D 1 Isaiah Wilson S D, 1 making a total of 47

Both officers and members seem to have taken hold of the work during the past year with more energy and zeal than usual and thereby increasing the actual membership of our order and thus added much to its efficiency as an active agent in curtailing the evils that spring from the rum trade

A number of the State and district deputies have been quite active and earnest in the performance of the duties assigned them and have delivered public lectures visited lodges, conferred degrees and rendered valuable assistance in promoting our glorious work

Hon Levi Leland State lecturer during the time he labored for this Grand Lodge jurisdiction did effective service for which the friends of temperance will ever hold him in grateful remembrance His report will show his work in detail, and to that I most respectfully refer you

GRAND LODGE ORGAN

At the last session of this body the matter of Grand Lodge organ was left in the hands of the executive committee and for a statement of the action of said committee with reference to this subject I beg to refer you to the report of our efficient grand secretary While upon this point permit me to speak of the necessity of sustaining a temperance paper in our State as a medium of communication for members of the order and to disseminate our principles and send into waste places the cheering and enlightening blessings of temperance

DEGREE TEMPLES

Deeming it for the best interests of the order after consulting with the members of the executive committee I have granted charters for the formation of two degree temples Welcome Temple No 1 was instituted in Portland April 29th by State Deputy J A Smith and Unity No. 2 on the 10th of May by State Deputy J N Terwilliger at Ashland These temples are now doing a very good work and may prove to be valuable auxiliaries to the lodges in promoting our cause

AID

I have been greatly aided in my labors of the past year by the assistance and invaluable counsel given me so heartily by James A Smith G S A G Walling G T Anna L Underwood G C and Henrietta Miller G V T all of the executive committee I am also much indebted to P G W C T Bro Tillmon Ford, whose devotion to the cause and great experience in the work made his counsel and advice almost indispensable Bro Ford has ever been ready and willing to assist me in all matters pertaining to the duties of my office

RECOMMENDATIONS

My experience and observation teaches me that the lecture system as it has been carried out in this G L jurisdiction is indispensable in promoting the cause and the good of the order and I would most heartily recommend the keeping in the field of one or more lecturers to labor for the order under direction of the executive committee The G W C T should as soon as possible after the close of this session visit the noble lodges of our order in Eastern Oregon that have so long and valiantly battled for our cause while so far separated from the other lodges of the jurisdiction

In the performance of my duties as G W C T, I have had a large correspondence to keep up—answering questions sending instructions, etc etc A great many questions have been referred to me for answer and I herewith submit a schedule of the most important, to which I invite your attention

CONCLUSION

In concluding I desire to thus publicly express my thanks to Bro James A Smith your worthy and industrious grand secretary for the many favors shown me during the year To him also much of the present prosperity of the order in this State is due on account of his industry and efficiency in his official duties and the cheering and encouraging letters written to many members of the fraternity

The harmony of my relations with the Grand Lodge and the order at large has been unbroken, and there has not occurred during my whole official or social intercourse with the members the slightest misunderstanding or the least bitterness of feeling that I can now call to mind By each officer and member I have been treated with great kindness and in the years hence, though we be far separated one from the other I shall look back with pride to the pleasant hours we have spent together and never forget my indebtedness to all for their words of cheer and encouragement

The grand secretary Bro Jas A Smith submitted his report a synopsis of which we give as follows

CONDITION OF THE ORDER

It is with feelings of the sincerest gratitude that I call your attention to the remarkable increase in membership that has been the result of this year's labors to the present prosperity of the Order in this jurisdiction and to the satisfactory condition of our finances The experience of the past twelve months has fully shown the wisdom which prompted the Grand Lodge at its last session to place our present executive in the chair of the G W C T Most worthily has he filled that position Through his unremitting efforts our order has attained a degree of prosperity surpassing all the years since the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge has been confined to the State of Oregon Our membership has increased fully one thousand

LECTURING

During the year past Bro Dunbar has occupied the lecture field uninterruptedly since October 8, 1874 His compensation for such services at the rate fixed by the Grand Lodge ($125 per month) amounts to $1 000 which has been paid in full. Bro Levi Leland has lectured about four months and has organized three lodges and reorganized three lodges He has traveled 1 338 miles delivered 71 lectures and received as salary $4[illegible]3 2[illegible] When not employed by us he has been laboring in Washington Territory

THE TEMPERANCE STAR

This able and consistent journal has faithfully continued throughout this year to preach the grand truths of temperance and to advocate the promulgation and advancement of our beloved order and this too at pecuniary sacrifice of its founders the paper meeting with inadequate encouragement at the hands of temperance people. It has been for a long time an unsolved problem why those who teach by precept and example the blessings of temperance and in all other ways but this one give the good cause their countenance and support, should ignore the claim that our temperance paper has upon them and should permit this great influence to be hindered and impaired by want of the necessary and essential encouragement which a liberal patronage would afford Our Grand Lodge has never failed to give substantial aid to everything that tended to promote the cause we advocate and I would respectfully recommend that with a prudent regard to our finances and to the other requirements of our order this Grand Lodge extend some material aid to the Star

PERSONAL

His Excellency Gov Grover was in the city yesterday

A private letter has been received by a gentleman in this city in which it is stated that Senator James K Kelly will leave Washington for Portland on the 10th inst

FLORAL ENTERTAINMENT AT THE UNITARIAN CHAPEL.

One of the most charming and well prepared entertainments which it has ever been our pleasure to listen to was given by the Sunday school of the Unitarian church yesterday evening The storm which set in early in the evening prevented the occasion from being so great a financial success as was hoped and as the entertainment richly deserved but the large number who attended witnessed and heard a delightful programme of exercises which was carried out by the children with the perfect ease only insured by careful preparation The whole room was decorated with the choicest flowers and the dresses of the children and young ladies made the room look doubly attractive

Two pieces were the center of interest The first in which 18 took part was a dialogue rendered with great naturalness called "Making a Motto" The twelve letters of "Work Conquers" were elaborately worked with rose buds and placed at last by the children back of the pulpit who conversed during their work reciting short pieces and singing appropriate songs The other called "The Ladder of Life" is an exquisite emblematic poem in which the several ages personified by young ladies who came forward and placed upon the rounds of a ladder the symbols of faith, hope and love The choir of the church sang responses to each part of the poem

A number of instrumental solos duets and songs were given by several of the members of the school and excellently rendered We would have to mention every name to do full justice One duet was performed by a little boy six years old and his young sister and elicited great applause Another little man distinguished himself by a poetic speech about boys The "Song of a Little Cripple Boy" was beautifully given as a responsive duet, with organ accompaniment

At the close of the exercises, large numbers remained to congratulate the young people and to admire the truly extraordinary display of flowers The whole entertainment would bear repetition and will be remembered as a complete success by the Sunday school and its friends and a guarantee that whatever they undertake in the future will be as well done

The piano for the occasion we were requested to state, was kindly furnished by Mr DePrans

THE TURF.

The celebrated trotting stallion Eph Maynard has been taken east of the mountains by Mr Glassford of Walla Walla.

The race course at the riverside track has just been harrowed and leveled, and the present rains will have the effect to settle the ground and render the course firm and solid

Says the La Grande Sentinel of last Saturday

The spring races over the race-course near Union commenced on Wednesday The first day's races consisted of a single dash of one mile free for all two year olds for a purse of $40, and a quarter race for a purse of $25 There were two animals started in each race John Dobbins and Alex LaDuff each entered a two year old, but they had received very little training and were in no condition to run Dobbins mare won the race in 2 16 The quarter race was contested between Sturgill's Wild Weasel and Mettler's Jo Buggins and was a pretty race the former winning

The Walla Statesman of the 5th says "In the announcement of the races to come off here on the 5th, 6th and 7th of July the proprietors of the track unintentionally omitted to say that Foster would be required to carry 112 pounds the same as Osceola in the race, single dash of one mile In a letter to us Mr Coggan very naturally declines to let Osceola go in a race in which Foster is expected to enter, under such rules But as soon as the matter was called to their attention, the proprietors notified Foster's owner that his horse would also be required to carry 112 pounds, thus putting the two horses on equal footing so far as weight is concerned Next Saturday there will be a race between Oregon Rube and Buckskin for $500 a side, at the track, three miles below town—distance 600 yards These are both good short horses and they are supposed to be very evenly matched A good deal of interest is being felt among the patrons of the turf and it is not improbable that the attendance will be large and some money change owners"

BRIEF NOTES.

County commissioners court will meet today

Hand in your statements to Assessor Barnard

Yesterday morning at 5 o clock A M the bark Rival started to sea in tow of the Astoria

A great number of dry hides are now stored on the O S N Co's wharf awaiting shipment below

We learn with regret that there is no material change in the condition of Mr S N Arrigoni's health.

Two vehicles collided yesterday morning at the corner of Stark and First streets No damage was done

A private letter was received from Captain Hugh Macauley who accompanied the surveying party of D P Thompson to the southern part of the State, which states that they were under snow for four days in the vicinity of Crescent lake

While the rain was pouring down in torrents yesterday afternoon the street sprinkler was observed driving his wagon through the streets, with his hat pulled down over his eyes and coat buttoned closely around his manly form Those who saw it could not repress the temptation to "larf"

PICNICS.

St Paul's Episcopal Sunday school, Oregon City will hold their annual picnic in the East Portland Park on Friday the 11th inst The steamer E N Cooke has been chartered to convey them to and from the grounds A cordial invitation is extended to their many friends both in Oregon City Portland and East Portland

The pupils and friends connected with the Catholic Sunday school held a picnic yesterday at Clackamas Grove At an early hour the excursionists took a special train on the east side and went up to the grounds After a very pleasant day's ramble through the shady groves the picnickers returned to the city late in the afternoon.

The proper committee appointed by the Odd Fellows of the city to select grounds whereon to hold their forthcoming picnic have been looking for a suitable place We understand that a spot has been selected on the Columbia river a short distance below Vancouver The place is entirely new and will of course have to be cleared Several men in a few days will be engaged in clearing the grounds and trimming the trees

The Pace that Kills.
It is the pace that kills People who live fast get old rapidly Nothing wears out the constitution like dissipation and late hours Hygeia goddess of health bitterly revenges herself upon all who break her laws not alone those who do so wantonly but even those who are compelled by hard necessity Constant overwork saps the physical structure with no less certainty if less rapidly, than dissipated habits There is however an antidote which so far as it is in the power of medicine to retard the wear and tear of the system thus accelerated achieves that object most successfully This preservative is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters a vitalizing agent without a peer Premature decay whether it be the result of inherent weakness, hard work continuous anxiety dissipation or disease, is stayed in its withering career and the exhausted and shattered system powerfully reinforced by this genial restorative

Many Suffer rather than take nauseous medicines and this is not to be wondered at as the remedy is often worse than the disease Sufferers from coughs colds influenza sore throat or tendency to Consumption will find in Dr WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY a remedy as agreeable to the palate as effectual in removing disease

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 9 1875

HOMEWARD

BY HESTER A BENEDICT

I

My poor poor eyes they are blind with tears
And I cannot work she said
Tossing aside her thimble and shears
And winding her spools of thread

The riotous wind with her roses stayed
A wooing a wooing long
The swallow she slept all undismayed
And her dreams they were sweet with song
But the lady lay on her pillow white
White as a ghost lay she
Speeding her soul on a lonely flight
To her lover afar at sea

II

The night is drunken with dream alarm
And I cannot sleep she said
Tossing the snow of a weary arm
On the fold of a weary head

The velvety roses—foolish things!
A nodding a nodding were
To the wind a furling his wanton wings
Where the lilies were all astir
But the lady lay at her lattice low
Low as the land lay she
With every beat in her breast a blow
For her lover aft at sea

III

My blood is fire my breath is flame
And I cannot live she said
Wailing the words of her lover's name
As if he were doomed and dead

The beautiful ship went under the moon
A sailing a sailing on
To the wayward time of a wayward tune
Till the half world met the dawn
And the lady leaned to her roses sweet
Sweet as the rose leaned she
Hearing the sound of her lover's feet
And happy of heart as he

A BOSTON HORROR

A LITTLE GIRL OF FIVE YEARS SLAIN IN A BOSTON CHURCH AND HER BODY TERRIBLY MUTILATED AND LEFT IN THE LOFT—ARREST OF THE ALLEGED MURDERER—A MOST HELLISH CRIME

BOSTON, May 23 —Another murder even more horrible in its details than that of Mrs Bingham a few weeks since, was perpetrated in this city this afternoon A bright little girl five years old was murdered in church and her bruised and mutilated body carried up into the tower and thrown upon the floor of the loft. The victim of the tragedy was Mabel H Young, who with her widowed mother, resided with her grandfather at 38 East Chester Park The latter, James Hubbs, is a well known and highly respected merchant, senior of the firm of Hubbs Pope & Co

This afternoon Mabel, in company with an aunt, attended the Sunday school anniversary exercises of the Warren Avenue Baptist Church On coming out of the church at half-past three o'clock, the aunt remained in the vestibule about ten minutes conversing with some friends and on starting home missed the child At first it was supposed she had gone back into the church, but when she was not found inside and persons outside declared she had not come out the aunt became alarmed and a search was commenced in every direction

About four o'clock some ladies at an open window across the street heard the faint cries of a child, apparently from the church tower Some young men who had joined the search started at once to ascend the tower. They found the door leading up from the organ loft locked, and on forcing it open discovered fresh blood on the steps leading up to the next landing They also found a strip of board covered with blood at one end and heard low moanings from above. Ascending a long steep flight of stairs and raising the scuttle, which resisted the strength of a strong man, they found the mangled body of the child lying near the edge of the scuttle as though it had been carried up the steps and hastily thrown there. They carried her down into the church, where a large number of people had congregated, and into the presence of her agonized friends From the top of her head, which was broken in, blood and brains were oozing, while the nose was crushed in and the face horribly mangled She was carried to her grandfather's residence and surgeons at once summoned who pronounced her case hopeless and her death a question of but a few hours at the farthest.

Thomas Piper who has been sexton of the church for about a year was soon after arrested and is now confined at the Chief's office He was engaged at work about the church, but his suspicious manner and his denial that he had keys, when two keys fitting the door to the tower were taken from his person, point strongly to him as the murderer He is a dark, heavy set man, about twenty six years old and has once before been under suspicion of murder, but was discharged for want of sufficient evidence Many of the police still believe him guilty of the murder of a young girl in the Dorchester district about fifteen months since This last affair has caused a profound sensation in the community and intense excitement prevails The very boldness of the affair lends additional horror to it Scarcely three-quarters of an hour elapsed from the time the child came out of the vestibule of the church until she was found in a dying condition How she was enticed away and for what motive has not transpired

LEARN A TRADE

I never look at my old steel composing rule that I do not bless myself that while my strength lasts I am not at the mercy of the world If my pen is not wanted I can go back to the type case and be sure to find work, for I learned the printer's trade thoroughly—newspaper work job work book work and press work I am glad I have a good trade It is a rock upon which the possessor can stand firmly There is health and vigor for body and mind in an honest trade It is the strongest and surest part of the self made man Go from the academy to the printing office or the artisan's bench, or, if you please, to the farm—for, to be sure, true farming is a trade, and a grand one at that Lay thus a sure foundation and after that branch off into whatever profession you please

You have heard perhaps, of the clerk who had faithfully served Stephen Girard from boyhood to manhood On the twenty first anniversary of his birthday he went to his master and told him his time was up, and he certainly expected important promotion in the merchant's service But Stephen Girard said to him

"Very well, now go and learn a trade"

"What trade, sir?"

"Good barrels and butts must be in demand while you live, go and learn the cooper's trade, and when you have made a perfect barrel bring it to me"

The young man went away and learned the trade and in time brought to his old master a splendid barrel of his own make

Girard examined it, and gave the maker two thousand dollars for it and then said to him

"Now, sir, I want you in my counting room, but henceforth you will not be dependent upon the whim of Stephen Girard Let what will come you have a good trade always in reserve"

The young man saw the wisdom and understood

Years ago when the middle aged men of to day were boys Horace Greeley wrote

It is a great source of consolation to us that when the public shall be tired of us as an editor, we can make a satisfactory livelihood at setting type or farming, so that while our strength lasts ten thousand blockheads taking offence at some article they do not understand, could not drive us into the poor house

And so many a man becomes truly independent

"What shall I do for my dyspepsia doctor?" "Diet" "Dye it! Why man would you have me treat a disease as if it were a prematurely gray head?" That depends upon whether you desire to get ahead of the disease, said the doctor

The no important feature in our local money market changed to day from the condition of it noticed daily for weeks past There is a fair amount of business done at the banks [illegible] but it is mostly confined to [illegible] and limited sums The supply of loanable funds is said to be good and no choice opportunities for investment are slighted but nevertheless a due degree of caution is exercised and some shrewd [illegible] borrowers are dissatisfied with the terms required No fluctuations in rates are noticed

It seems from the telegrams that the gold ring of New York are again at work and the price has run up to 117 the highest point for some time Eastern business men have more reason to complain of this continued effort on the part of Wall street manipulators to disturb the finances of the country than have the people of this coast for it occasionally benefits our merchants who send gold east to pay for goods and receive the advantage of the high premium but in those States which have a paper currency almost exclusively the annoyance arising from this continued disturbance is very great.

United States Treasurer Bristow has issued another call for the redemption of $10 000 000 in coupon bonds. This officer commenced the redemption of $5 000 000 on a previous call on the 2d inst. There is an additional $30 000 000 to be redeemed on and after the 11th inst. and $10 000 000 in July and August besides the call issued June 1st for $10 000 000 more.

Wheat Crops and Markets

In France at the close of April the want of rain was complained of in every rural district. Autumn sown wheat however in strong soils afforded grounds for expectations but on lighter soils was much less promising as no moisture was there so highly requisite for promoting its growth The spring sown cereals were developing tolerably well in those districts which were moistened with the rainfall of the preceding week but as the showers were by no means general there was a feeling of disquietude manifested

At Rostock Germany on the 19th ult stocks of grain were light and supplies moderate The spring shipments were nearly through some 6 to 7 wheat cargoes having been got off to England Scotland Belgium and Holland The growing grain crops generally looked healthy but rain and a higher temperature were needed

At Odessa April 15 supplies of grain from the interior both by land and water had been light and the condition of the same is more or more or less defective Large supplies were however expected somewhat later

In Denmark on the 22d ult the wheat and rye fields were looking very well Stocks of grain small at Copenhagen and considerably below the average in Denmark and South Sweden

In Holland at the close of April the weather continued dry accompanied by a low temperature The prospects of the growing crops was not then unsatisfactory but rain was generally desirable.

At Valparaiso South America stocks of wheat were heavy with sales not proportional prices unsatisfactory Wheat was held there at $ 50a2 50 per hectolitre of 165 lbs in bulk f o b

Deliveries of new wheat at Alexandria Egypt will have been commenced by about June 1st

Below will be found the amount of grain in sight in the States and Canada, May 15 1875 Wheat 11 300 688 bushels corn 8 426 438 bushels oats 2 405 504 bushels rye 49 0 bushels barley 114 0 bushels

Accounts of the latest dates from California report an improvement in the crop prospects of that State and it is now estimated that that State will have 400 000 tons of breadstuffs for export during the next harvest year

In Oregon owing to the continued cold weather in May the wheat crop came forward slowly and in some fields the stalks began to turn yellow but the warm weather we are now having will bring the plant out rapidly and no apprehensions of a failure of the full yield before predicted are now felt

Local Trade Matters

In local trade circles there is apparently less business doing than on yesterday though a fair degree of activity in some lines of goods is still observed Harvesting machinery and implements are in good demand and houses in that branch are enjoying a good trade Some life is noticed also in dry goods of a seasonable character but prices are weak In groceries the market is quiet with no change in quotations Coffee is as firm as ever while sugars having been marked down a trifle at the refineries in San Francisco in order to compete with Eastern shipments received are weaker here but no decline has yet taken place in our home market

Domestic produce is moving quite slowly at present Wheat is not offering Flour is unchanged and very firm Oats weak at 5 cents per bushel and receipts very light. Bacon is plentiful and large lots must rule low to be placed Potatoes are selling at $1 50 per bushel and are scarce at that figure Eggs are still quotable at 18 cents per doz Wool is coming forward in increased quantities but buyers are going very slowly and most of it goes into storage to await further developments in the market. Prices are not changed since our last report. The telegraph reports an improved tone in the San Francisco market to day

The Tonnage Question

The matter of a good supply of tonnage to carry away the surplus grain crop of Oregon after next harvest is now attracting a good deal of attention As yet however but little has been done as far as we have been able to learn in the matter of making engagements though quite a respectable number of vessels have been reported as bound in this direction seeking charters The decline in wheat in the European market and also the decline in the price of charters for that trade on this coast last year after a large number of vessels had been engaged has doubtless had the effect to render exporters more cautious in the matter of taking up ships while the future of both the breadstuff and freight markets is a thing of so much uncertainty

The same backwardness in moving to secure ships in California appears to prevail There are now disengaged in the port of San Francisco 40 000 tons of tonnage and vessels have but few offers the nominal quotations being £3 An exchange from that city says not over 5 vessels have been taken up for the next crop

Shipping Intelligence

The Earl Rival went to sea this morning for San Francisco

The ship City of Vienna has as yet received but a few tons of her cargo enough to stiffen her up as her ballast came out

The steamship Ajax from San Francisco was reported coming in over the bar as the boat left Astoria for Portland this morning

This port is now almost bare of sea going vessels the ship City of Vienna being the only one in port

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla Dock Stillingia and Mandrake with the Iodide of Potassium and Iron makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting It purifies the blood purges out the lurking humors in the system that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ or organs whose action they derange and whose substance they disease and destroy AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood When they are gone the disorders they produce disappear such as Ulcerations of the Liver Stomach Kidneys Lungs Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin St Anthony's Fire Rose or Erysipelas Pimples Pustules Blotches Boils Tumors Tetter and Salt Rheum Scald Head Ringworm Ulcers and Sores Rheumatism Neuralgia Pain in the Bones Side and Head Female weakness Sterility Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease Dropsy Dyspepsia Emaciation and General Debility With their departure health returns
